

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

“Legitimacy and Efficiency in Global Economic Governance”

Lecce, 06th -07th May 2011

Rettorato of The University of Salento, Piazzetta Tancredi 7

Programme

Day 1: Friday May 06th 2011

8:30-8:45 Registration

8:45-9:00 Welcome Addresses by the Authorities

9:00-9:15 Introductory remarks – Dr. Biagio Bossone, President of The Group of Lecce

9:15-9:45 Keynote speech – Prof. Domenico Lombardi (The Oxford Institute for Economic Policy), “Towards a Global Monetary System”

9:45-11:30 Session 1: ENHANCING LEGITIMACY AND EFFICIENCY IN GLOBAL ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE: MULTILATERAL INSTITUTIONS AT A CROSSROADS

Chair: Dr. Biagio Bossone, President of “The Group of Lecce”

Discussant: Prof. Giorgio Sacerdoti, Bocconi University Milan, President of CIDOIE

Pooran Priya Nandita (Attorney at law, USA), Global Economic Governance after the financial crisis – The impact of international financial regulatory reforms

Liboria Maggio (University of Salento), Forward-looking estimation of State's default probability: IMF as a sovereign credit rating authority?

Claudia Cinelli (University of Seville), The G-20 at the UN Economic and Social Council – A proposal

Roberto Soprano (University of Salerno), WTO and the financial crisis: what lessons should we learn?

11:30-11:45 Coffee break

11:45-13:30 Session 2: UNDERSTANDING A COMPLEX PHENOMENON: TOWARDS A GENERAL THEORY OF GLOBAL ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE

Chair: Prof. Nicola De Liso, University of Salento

Discussant: Prof. Robert Leonardi (London School of Economics)

Keith Crawford (Nottingham University), A history of failure: rediscovering the role of punishment in economic governance and corporate insolvency

Roberta Marra (University of Salento), Information asymmetry vs. communication isonomy: some notes on transparency regulation of financial markets

Angelo Coluccia (University of Salento), A rendez-vous between networking fairness and economic wealth

Natalia Dumnaya (Moscow University), System's risks of financial markets: barriers for governance

Hassan Nawaz Sheikh (Research Society of International Law, Pakistan), International Financial Regulation: Weaving the Net

13:30-15:00 Buffet Lunch

15:00-16:45 Session 3: THE INTERPLAY OF HARD AND SOFT LAW IN INTERNATIONAL GLOBAL ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE

Chair: Prof. Susanna Cafaro, University of Salento

Discussant: Prof. Daniel Bradlow, American University Washington College of Law, University of Pretoria, South Africa

Isabelle Chivoret (University of Paris, Descartes Law School), Legitimacy vs. efficiency: the role of soft law in global economic governance

Solomon Sunday Okedara (Attorney at Law, Nigeria), Basel Accords and International financial regulation: the journey so far

Karin Buhmann (University of Copenhagen), Recognizing a “government case” for CSR: impact on legitimacy and efficiency on global governance through institutionalisation of CSR and business access to rule-making at intergovernmental level

Yaraslau Kryvoi (London School of Economics), Addressing investor misconduct: counterclaims in investor-state arbitration

Andrew B. Friedman (University of Illinois), The evolution of amicus participation in international investment tribunals

16:45-17:00 Coffee Break

17:00-19:00 Session 4: GLOBAL ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE FOR WORLD DEVELOPMENT

Chair: Dr. Saverio Di Benedetto, University of Salento

Discussant: Dr. Leonardo Martinez-Diaz, U.S. Agency for International Development

Pallavi Kishore (Jindal Global Law School, India), The WTO, the generalised system of preferences, and global economic governance

Francesca Martines (University of Pisa), International regulation of export taxes: development tools or inefficient trade instruments?

Marta Bordignon (University of Rome Tor Vergata), The impact of the development promotion on international law and global governance

Irini Papanicolopulu (University of Milano Bicocca), Economic development and marine living resources, between unilateral actions and institutionalised multilateral cooperation

Artem Zamblelyy (MESI, Moscow University), Environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors as criteria of investments strength in emerging markets

Paolo Leoci (University of Salento), Sustainability of Globalization: The Contribution of Saint Nicholas School for Intercultural Dialogue

21:00 Gala Dinner

Day 2: Saturday May 07th 2011

9:00-10:45 Session 5: GOVERNMENT VS. GOVERNANCE: THE RETURN OF STATE AFTER THE CRISIS.

Chair and Discussant: Prof. Maria Chiara Malaguti, University of Salento

Valentina Maksimova (MESI, Moscow University), The role of government in building the smart economy

Daniele Schilirò (University of Messina), A new governance for the EMU and the economic policy framework

Laura Sempi (University of Salento), The intervention of the state in the economy through the lens of the Chinese anti-monopoly law

Aditi Aparajita (Oxford University), State control on the banking sector: lessons to be learned from Indian banking sector regulation during the economic crisis

Silvia Solidoro (University of Salento, World Bank), Cross-border bank insolvency regimes and financial supervision. Domestic, regional and supranational levels of regulation

10:45-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-11:15 Keynote speech - Dr. Luca Einaudi, Italian Presidency of Council, The impact of the financial crisis on the transformation of global governance

11:15-12:45 Final Roundtable

12:45-13:00 Concluding Remarks - Prof. Maria Chiara Malaguti (University of Salento)

Sessions of the Workshop will be also available via live streaming video online at www.thegroupoflecce.org/workshop

Under the kind patronage of:

MONTE
DEI PASCHI
DI SIENA
BANCA DAL 1472

